Of all my uncles and aunts, I like Uncle Josh the best. He dotes on me. He does not often buy presents for me, but he likes to teach me useful skills.

Uncle Josh is the one who taught me how to swim. He was a champion swimmer during his school days. I am presently a good swimmer because of Uncle Josh's guidance.

Uncle Saad likes to fish. He is fifty years old. Uncle Saad is tall and athletic.

When he was younger, he used to participate in sports. He would always return with an armload of trophies on every Sport's Day.

One bright Sunday morning, I went fishing with Uncle Saad. Uncle Saad had a sunny smile on his round face. He had grown fat in his older years. He greeted me cheerfully. Uncle Saad is always pleasant.

While waiting for the fish to bite, Uncle Saad told me many stories. The stories are about the adventures he had in the past. They happened during his trips to other countries. I always enjoy listening to his tales.

I would like to travel too when I grow up. I want to have as many adventures as Uncle Saad.
